SECRETARYSHIP OF SCHOOL BOARD COVETED BY TWO

Secretary Byrd Anxious to be Re-elected and Trustee Kelly is an Avowed Candidate for the Place—May Move Office Down Town Next Year.

WOULD HAVE ITS ADVANTAGE

A movement is on foot to have the office of the superintendent of the city schools down town, and some members of the school board, especially those who find it difficult to go to the high school building to attend meetings, are favoring it. Except for the fact that there will be an additional expense attached to the renting of an office, there are many good reasons for such a change, which would be satisfactory to Superintendent Carnagey.

It is not likely that the change will be made, if at all, until the new board goes in, and the short term members probably will qualify and take their seats, so they may vote on the proposition of moving the office down town, if they desire the change.

While the choice of a president of the board is in abeyance, there are two active candidates for secretary. W. T. Byrd, the present secretary, is seeking re-election, and Trustee C. G. Kelley wants the place. The latter has an office down town, so that as secretary he could be found at all times, an advantage not now enjoyed by the members and people having business with the board.

FISCAL COURT CONVENES IN SESSION WEDNESDAY.

Fiscal court will be called on its regular meeting tomorrow morning to consider a new location for the county cemetery. The present county cemetery in the southern end of the city is both too low and too close to town. Several tracts are available and definite action may be taken by the court. The bids for the new wall around the county jail will be opened and decision will be reached about awarding the contract. The new Rabb bridge in the southwestern part of the county will be received.

DR. BOLLING IS GOING; DR. SULLIVAN IS COMING.

The Rev. W. T. Bolling returned from the Memphis conference session at Humboldt, Tenn., last night. He will go to Paris, Tenn., his new charge, the last of this week to preach on Sunday and will move his family the first of next week. Dr. Sullivan, who exchanges the First Methodist church at Paducah, with Dr. Bolling, will fill the Broadway pulpit Sunday and move his family here the coming week. Dr. Bolling and his family have made a number of friends in Paducah during their one year stay who regret their departure. Dr. Sullivan does not come to Broadway as a stranger. He has preached here on several occasions and closes a successful four year pastorate in Paris.

WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSION SOCIETY MEETING OVER.

Mrs. C. H. Chamblin, secretary of the Paducah district Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church South, has returned from Clinton, where she held a meeting of the missionary societies of this district last week. It was an interesting and well attended meeting. Mrs. Thomas B. King, of Memphis, conference vice president, was present and conducted the devotional meeting. Miss Daisie Davis, secretary of the young people's societies, was present and lectured on Tuesday evening at Marvin College. A Young People's society and a Mission Study class was organized after the lecture. The Mission Study classes will do much to increase the knowledge and interest in missions. The district treasurer reported $488.28 raised for the work this year. Mrs. Clarence Bennett, delegate from the Broadway Methodist church, Paducah, was appointed press reporter. A delightful reception was given the delegates during their stay in Clinton, and all hospitality was extended. The second annual district meeting will be held in Paducah, October 15, 1908.

MRS. BRADLEY TAKES SEAT ON STAND AND TELLS OF VICTIM AND ABOUT THEIR RELATIONS

SOPS AND SPEAKS IN TONE SCARCELY AUDIBLE AS SHE RELATES STORY OF THEIR UNHOLY LOVE AND ITS CONSEQUENCES—MANY WOMEN WEEP AT HER RECITAL

Washington, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Bradley, charged with the murder of Senator Brown, of Utah, took the stand shortly after 10 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Bradley spoke in a low voice and labored under excitement. She told of being born in Kansas City, Mo., 35 years ago and educated at Denver. She began working at 15 years and received an injury to her head when a child. She was very sensitive to the touch now. She moved to Salt Lake in 1890 and married Clarence Bradley in 1893. Two children were born. She took an interest in women's clubs, and politics and her married life was unhappy. Her husband and she ceased to live together in 1898. She was divorced in 1905. She met Senator Brown in 1892 and became well acquainted with him in 1898.

With tears she said the friendship grew into intimate relations, which ripened into affection. She broke down when asked to describe the nature of their acquaintance. She said she couldn't. Many women in the court room wept at the picture of the sobbing woman, narrating the story of her own shame in a broken, scarcely audible voice. She could not describe Brown's manner towards her. After questioning she said it was tender and affectionate. He protested love. She loved him. It was beyond expression she said. Most of her answers were sobbed to the jury.

She told Brown that their life would lead to sorrow, but he said they would go through life together. He said: "Darling, we are going through life together. I want you to have a son. Months later a son was born named Arthur Brown. The Senator held it at the christening."

The relations continued after the child was born. He wished to get a divorce from his wife, but the witness refused to allow him, saying she did not want to break up the Brown home. She believed in his affections. In June, 1901, their relations became known, and Brown wanted to break up his home, but she wouldn't let him. The loss of her child caused her a mental spell. Brown first saw the second son when the child was two weeks old, saying he was proud

STOOD 24 HOURS WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER IS CHARGE

For 24 hours, according to the statement of neighbors, a horse stood at Twelfth street and Salem avenue all through the rain Sunday night, without food to eat or a drink, until Jap Toner, agent for the Humane society, took it down town and placed it in a delivery stable. Mr. Toner swore out a warrant for the owner of the animal, Robert Hughes, a farmer residing in the southern part of the county, and Mr. Hughes gave bond in the police court for his appearance. Mr. Hughes said he fed the horse. Somebody telephoned Mr. Toner last evening and he went out about 7 o'clock and found the horse standing, hunched to a post. Neighbors told him it had stood there since Sunday afternoon with no attention at all.

ANNIVERSARY OF PASTORATE BEING BROUGHT TO CLOSE

Reception to Father Jansen Tonight Concludes Celebration of Silver Jubilee—Will Be Made Recipient of Many Beautiful and Costly Gifts.

ADDRESS FROM THE CHILDREN

Twenty-five years ago the Rev. H. W. Jansen assumed the pastorate of St. Francis de Sales church, and the principal event in the celebration of his silver jubilee will take place today, the masses at 7 and 7:30 o'clock this morning concluding the Triduum service of Thanksgiving.

This afternoon in the Knights of Columbus hall Father Jansen received the Sisters and pupils of St. Mary's academy, and such members of the congregation as could not go tonight.

Tonight the members of the congregation and invited guests, personal friends of Father Jansen, will attend.

The Knights of Columbus hall looks like a bit of summerland imported to do honor to the occasion. Above and around the room southern similes are twined in lavish profusion, while white flowers and palms and ferns form a perfect bower. At the southern end of the room a triple arch of white is festooned with garlands and green, the words silver jubilee being strung across the center and 1882 and 1907 on either side.

In the receiving line will appear: The Rev. Father Jansen; John T. Donovan and Miss Flora Glauber; John J. Dorian and Miss Bertha Hill; Frank M. Fisher and Mrs. John Atkins; A. R. Grouse and Miss Ella Hill; R. MacMillen and Mrs. MacMillen; Edwin J. Paxton and Mrs. J. T. Donovan; Morton Hand and Miss Sadie Paxton; P. F. Lally and Miss Mary Geagan; Ed Parley and Miss Rena Bernard; Fred Flannigan and Miss Rosella Parley; J. L. Wolfe and Miss Mary Haag; Ed Hannan and Mrs. Lally; A. W. Grief and Mrs. Hoffman; Richard Geagan and Miss Maggie Lydon.

In the entrance hall will be stationed Miss Carrie Warren, Miss Maggie Donigan, Miss Gertrude Fisher, Miss Frances Clark. The guest book will be in charge of Miss Catherine Donovan, Miss Anne Lydon, Miss Mary Dorian.

This afternoon an address was presented to Father Jansen by Miss Gertrude Fisher in behalf of the pupils of St. Mary's academy. The school orchestra furnished the music. Tonight besides Deal's orchestra, there will be several musical numbers by the best talent in the city.

REV. F. M. HAWLEY'S SUIT AGAINST W. W. MEADOWS FOR HORSEWHIPPING GIVEN HIM AT FULTON ON TRIAL IN FEDERAL COURT

Tax Dodgers are More Numerous in City Than in Country, Says Sheriff.

Tax dodgers are more numerous in the city than in the county according to the delinquent tax list compiled by Sheriff John W. Ogilvie. The city tax delinquent list turned over to the county clerk today by Sheriff Ogilvie shows 500 delinquents in Paducah, while the county list though uncompleted will not show nearly so many in proportion to population or absolutely. Tax dodging is much easier in the city, where property is held in a greater variety of forms than in the rural districts. The farmer has no stocks and bonds, or other financial paper in the quantity that city tax payers have, and all his property generally is above board where the assessor can rate it. Not only in the various instruments of finance does the city taxpayer hold property that is rarely found in the country, but his greater wealth enables him to own personal adornments, which, if there is the inclination, may be kept from the assessor's books. In the city, also, people do not know as much about their neighbor's affairs as in the sparsely settled country, and it would almost be possible to hide one's self from the tax gatherer.

Is Asking For $100,000 Damages For Injuries Inflicted on Him in Effort to Make Him Confess Things He is Accused of.

At 10 o'clock this morning the trial of the $100,000 damage suit of the Rev. F. M. Hawley, formerly pastor of the Fulton Presbyterian church, against W. W. Meadows, Dick Thomas, H. T. Smith, James White and George Gourley was reached in federal court. Immediately upon the announcement of Judge Evans that the court was ready to take up the case silence fell over the court room, showing the deep interest which the large crowd present had in the case.

After the defense had exhausted its challenges and the plaintiff had challenged several jurors the jury was finally accepted, and after statements by Judge Joe Robbins, of Mayfield, for the plaintiff and Hon. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, for the defense, the hearing of evidence began.

In his statement for the plaintiff Judge Robbins said the proof would show that a conspiracy existed between the defendants, who had taken the Rev. Mr. Hawley from the Fulton station by force and taking him a secluded spot cruelly beat him with whips until he was unconscious. He stated that Meadows would claim that he beat Hawley because he had alienated the affections of his wife, but that the proof would show the real reasons for it was that Meadows wanted to manufacture evidence to be used in a divorce suit instituted by Mrs. Meadows against her husband.

Mr. Wheeler, for the defense, said when Hawley went to the Meadows hotel to room, he met Meadows' wife, who was beautiful and attractive, and that his attention to Mrs. Meadows soon became marked. They often stayed in Hawley's room and met at many different places in the city at unseemly hours, and had been known to remain in the church, of which Hawley was pastor, alone together almost all night. They had been seen at late hours near deserted buildings. The attentions of the minister to Meadows' wife wrecked Meadows' home.

Dr. Hawley Testifies. After the statement of the counsel had been made the Rev. Mr. Hawley, who is a good looking man, apparently about 35 years old, took the stand and gave his testimony in a clear manner. He stated that on the night of June 10, 1907, he left the train at Fulton, and was accosted by two men, he took to be H. T. Smith, George Gourley and another man. He was hurried off to a vacant lot near a lumber yard, where he was searched and handcuffs were placed on his wrists.

H. T. Smith first began to beat him and then handed the whip to Meadows, telling him that he was the proper party to administer the beating, and for him to lay it on good and strong.

After the beating, Meadows began to ply plaintiff with questions and accusations as to his conduct with Mrs. Meadows. Hawley denied emphatically any unbecoming conduct with her, and stated that he had come back to Fulton to straighten out the rumors that had been circulated connecting him with the case.

Meadows then beat him again and he said he was beaten four times. Finally some one struck him in the back of the head and he fell unconscious and did not know what was done after that.

He stated that there were 25 or more gashes on his person made by the whip blows, and that there were evidences that he had been kicked in the side and on the knee after he had fallen unconscious.

After the beating he was forced into a carriage and driven to Harris station, where he took the train for Memphis. On cross-examination he denied admitting to Meadows that he had been guilty of intimacy with Mrs. Meadows, and that he had advised her to obtain a divorce and alimony promising to leave with her for foreign countries to work as missionaries after they were married.

THANKSGIVING GAME

Thanksgiving day the Culley football team will play a team from Paris, Tenn. The game has been arranged to be played here and another fine game is assured with prospects for a great crowd, as the holiday, if it is pleasant, will find all the people free to take in the game. Everyone who saw the game last Saturday is enthusiastic, because it was first-class in every particular. The players from Paris knowing what they will strike in the Culley team, have strengthened themselves and will practice daily to get in form to win.

SOME PEOPLE PAY DEBTS WITH MONEY THEY DON'T LIKE

Collections in a month that is characterized by a panic would not ordinarily be expected to be good, yet many Paducah merchants are reporting better collections than usual. Creditors with an understanding of the fundamental soundness of business conditions are profiting by this condition, which is due to the readiness with which some people will pay their debts with checks, though unwilling to accept checks in payment of wages or debts to them.

It is a known fact that when two mediums of circulation circulate side by side, there is a tendency for some people to attach a greater value to one of them. These persons are glad to pay their debts with the medium they do not value as the best, while they like to be paid off in the medium they value most. Hence, though cashiers' checks have the full resources of the issuing bank behind them guaranteeing their redemption, some persons seem to attach greater value to the regular currency, and finding the merchants value the checks equally with the currency, they pay their debts with the medium they value the least.

Paducah merchants will cheerfully take all the cashiers' checks offered in payment for debts, because they know that before these checks would lose in actual value, the whole industrial fabric of the city would have to go to pieces.

SECOND VENIRE ATTACKED LIKE FIRST BY POWERS

Georgetown, Nov. 19. (Special.)—In the Powers case this morning, evidence was introduced by the commonwealth to show that the charge of Powers regarding improper acts of deputy sheriffs and sheriffs in summoning the Harrison venire are false.

While waiting on the commonwealth to prepare some of its replies to Powers' charge against the sheriffs, Judge Morris ordered another venire of 200 summoned from Harrison county. Affidavit challenging second Harrison county venire of 100 men was filed in court and signed by Powers. He charges that the sheriffs went over the county summoning only the Democrats. Franklin filed his affidavit in opposition.

The Rev. Peter H. Fields arrived this afternoon from Humboldt and is arranging to leave as soon as possible for his new charge, MacKenzie, Tenn. MacKenzie is a fine college town, the seat of McTyeire institute and Mr. Fields has a fine outlook for work there. Terry, will arrive.

CITY JAILER CONTEST

Prospects of a contest over the office of city jailer grow more ominous as time goes on. City Jailer Tom Everts, whose term expires January 1, says he has consulted a lawyer and is advised that he has the right to remain in office until his successor "is elected and qualified." He contends that since Sam Beades did not qualify after being elected, there is no vacancy and no one can be appointed, but the incumbent must hold until the next regular election.

Mayor-elect James P. Smith said: "I have not taken counsel in regard to the matter yet, and cannot say what I shall do. Of course, if I am satisfied on good legal authority that it is my duty to make an appointment to the place, I shall do so. That is as far as I can go now."

THEATRICAL NOTES

Depew-Burdette Stock Co., in "An American Girl."

The Depew-Burdette Stock company, Paducah's favorite stock company, began a week's engagement last night in that beautiful four act comedy drama "The American Girl," a play that is seldom seen produced by a stock company. It can truthfully be said that the Depew-Burdette company is above their standard of last season, and is better than ever. The cast is above the average, and the production of "The American Girl" was noteworthy and the company repeated their old success of last year. Mr. Thomas E. Depew as Ross Bolter kept his audience in a roar of laughter, as his was one of the finest pieces of comedy work seen here this season. His acting at all times showed a keen conception of the character and he did not overdo a character very easily overdone. Mr. Depew is one of the best comedians at popular prices and is much better than the much talked of stars seen here at top prices. Miss Fannie Depew as "Saratoga," was delightful and showed a wardrobe of fine gowns. Rose Wildwood as Jasmine Carew, A. T. Storch as Philip Duon, Archie Maddox as Sir John Balfour, Mollie Bennett as Lady Derment, Melville Russell as Sampson Craft, and O. J. Mowbray as James, were exceptionally fine pieces of acting. The vaudeville contingent headed by the great Bunkerr in electrical dances and poses was a masterpiece. The Pepper twins in a German comedy skit introduced wooden shoe dancing. Baby Luella Pullen, the sweetest child singer in her famous song, "Won't You Be My Teddy Bear," served a vaudeville treat par excellence, and the large crowds that greeted the company declare it the best here at popular prices. The bill for Tuesday night is that 60 minute laugh per hour, "The American Girl." Prices 10, 20 and 30c. Seats now on sale.

Commission Starts.

St. Louis, Nov. 19.—The members of the Mississippi river commission started today on a semi-annual inspection tour, the expectation being that the party will go as far south as New Orleans. One result of the trip will be the report to the war department on the feasibility of a 14-foot channel from St. Louis to the Gulf.

MORNING AFTER

BRINGS FINES AND JAIL AS WELL AS REMORSE TO THREE.

Incompatibility of Temperament and Judgment From Police Bench is Assented To.

Three fines in police court this morning resulted in more revenue to the city than a much longer docket usually affords. Booze was working freely down at Ninth and Boyd streets last night, so freely in fact that it cost the owners of these particular jags $150, with 20 days in jail for one of them. Arthur Beasley, Will Travis and Walter Travis, colored, began "shooting up" that part of the city and at the same time brought out one of the most extensive vocabularies of profanity it has ever been the fortune of the police to hear. "That feeling the morning after" was accentuated by Judge Cross this morning in the case of Arthur Beasley with a fine of $50, full costs and 20 days in jail. In the case of Will Travis and Walter Travis, each $50 and costs.

Alfred Scott, a reputable negro brakeman, was charged by his spouse with a family breach of peace and Judge Cross heard the tale in court this morning. The spouse said Alfred threatened her life while Alfred said he would not live with a woman who would not work. This brought up the whole question of incompatibility of temperament and Judge Cross advised Alfred to let the spouse go to her mother. If she so took a notion, to which he grinningly agreed.

GOVERNMENT OFFICES DAMAGED

Man Pours Liquid on Floor, Lights It and Escapes.

Santiago, Cuba, Nov. 19.—An unsuccessful attempt was made to set fire to government headquarters. A man entered the civil government department of the palace carrying a can of gasoline. As he was passing the office of the governor he threw the can to the floor and applied a lighted match. The flames flared up and the building was threatened, but help was summoned and the fire extinguished. Considerable furniture and draperies were burned and the building itself sustained some damage. In the confusion the man escaped. The reason for his act is not known.

The more vanity a man has the easier it is to take a fall out of him.

LAFOLLETTE'S BOOM

Launched at Banquet of Minnesota Shippers and Receivers.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 19.—The presidential boom of Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, received its Minnesota launching last night at a banquet under the auspices of the Minnesota Shippers and Receivers association.

Among prominent Minnesota Republicans present were United States Senator Clapp and Lieutenant Governor Eberhardt, Governor Cummins, of Iowa, had been invited but was unable to be present. Wisconsin was represented by Irvine L. Learoot and J. A. Frear, secretary of state, two of LaFollette's political lieutenants. Former Speaker Lenroot, after reviewing the political struggles that have taken place in Wisconsin in the last ten years, pointed out what he considered the peculiar qualifications of LaFollette for the presidency.

James Patterson, of Minneapolis, and Senator Clapp spoke in favor of LaFollette's nomination.

FAKE HAIR PREPARATIONS

Do Hair No Good, But Often Cause It to Fall Out.

Many hair preparations are "fake" because they are merely scalp irritants. They often cause a dryness, making the hair brittle, and, finally, lifeless. Dandruff is the cause of all trouble with hair. It is a germ disease. The germ makes cuticle scales as it digs to the root of the hair, where it destroys the hair's vitality, causing it to fall out. To cure dandruff, the germ must be killed. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ, thereby leaving the hair to grow luxuriantly. Sold by leading druggists. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. W. B. McPherson, Special Agent.

LABORATORY

APPARATUS UNCRATED AND INSTALLED AT HIGH SCHOOL.

Construction Work on Twelfth and Jackson Building Will Be Completed Next Week.

The five boxes of apparatus for the laboratory of the High school, which have been received, were opened this morning and will be arranged for use. When the remaining part of the goods, which have not been shipped, gets here the laboratory will come nearer being completed than at any time since it was started. The new apparatus is the first that has been added to the original purchase.

Mr. M. H. Thatcher, representing the Chicago concern that furnished the improved blackboards for the new school buildings, has arrived and will place the new boards in position.

The brick and carpenter work on the new building at Twelfth and Jackson streets will be completed next week and the work of painting the wood work and installing the plumbing and heating apparatus will be done. The new building will not be occupied until the beginning of the second term in February, but it is expected that the buildings will be completed by Christmas.

Miss Rose Plournoy, of the Franklin building, and Miss Mary O. Murray, of the Washington building, were able to resume teaching in their departments this morning, after being off duty several days on account of sickness.

NINE FEET

IN TENNESSEE FROM PADUCAH

And Six Feet From Chattanooga to Knoxville Program of River Men.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 19.—Nine feet of water from Paducah to Chattanooga, six feet from Chattanooga to Knoxville, and four feet for the principle tributaries of the Tennessee river is the platform for the future of the people of the Tennessee valley as expressed officially by the Tennessee River Improvement association last week.

Enthusiastic for those new projects and determined to labor for their early completion, the Chattanooga delegates to the Knoxville river convention have returned to their homes. All declare that this convention marks a new epoch in the improvement of our waterway.

Congressman Richardson delivered one of the best speeches of the convention. He congratulated the people of the valley on the auspicious situation for the Tennessee river, with $1,000,000 from the last congress, dwelling on the fact that with money provided to complete Colbert and Bee Tree shoals improvement and the Hale's Bar lock and dam, the period of through navigation would soon be materially lengthened. He explained the proposed project below Decatur by which deeper water would be provided at Big Mussel shoals and the Little Mussel shoals impediment to navigation entirely provided for. A large power company is to do the most of this work somewhat on the same basis as the Hale's Bar improvement. The convention passed a resolution asking Speaker Cannon and minority leader Williams to appoint Judge Richardson on the rivers and harbors committee in place of Senator-elect Bankhead.

A letter from Thomas Patterson stated that he has improved in health, but that Mrs. Patterson has been sick. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson are in New Mexico for their health. They have bought a claim there and are living on it, with the intention of remaining there.

Mr. E. Uchinkbrook, who has been sick for several weeks, is again on the gain. He had typhoid fever, got up and then took a back-set.

"Johnny, what is your father's nativity?" asked the teacher.

"His what, ma'am?"

"His nativity—his nationality, you know."

"Oh! he hasn't got any yet, ma'am. We just moved here from Nebraska last week."—Chicago Tribune.

Everything to Furnish the Home

OUR SECOND ANNUAL OPENING

Tomorrow, Wednesday, Afternoon and Evening, 2 to 6, 7 to 10

Tomorrow, Wednesday, will be the occasion of our Second Annual opening in our new home, 114-116 South Third street, and we have made preparations for it which we believe will insure its being a pleasant and profitable occasion for all our friends and patrons. The store will be lavishly decorated and there will be dainty souvenirs and music by Deal's Orchestra. You will enjoy your visit.

In the evening we shall give away one of those famous COLE'S HOT BLAST HEATERS, VALUE $25. If you are present when the drawing takes place, your chance of winning it is as good as anyone's. It's worth trying for; a thousand housekeepers in Paducah will testify to that.

Now about those souvenirs. Most every lady in town will remember the charmingly decorated plates which we presented to callers during our opening last season, but we believe we have surpassed even our former efforts. Of course, we shall not tell you in advance what they will be, but they are certain to be much appreciated. We have one here for you and hope you will come to get it—and incidentally, see the handsome store and rich, dignified house furnishings which we feature. Of course, your mind will be concerned chiefly with the beauties of the things which you will see here Wednesday afternoon and evening, but we don't want you to neglect to compare our prices, value for value, with the ones you are usually asked to pay. Come, bring your friends.

Daily Thought.

Thou canst not to thy place by meant for thee.—Trench.Howard Gould says he will not be responsible for any more of Mrs.

on his wife's account, it will be Buf-

ing the walking record to Chicago,

A ROUGH PASSAGE.

It was rough sailing on the financial seas for a few days, and the waters are still a bit choppy, but the good ship Prosperity with never a leak has passed safely through an experience that would have wrecked
her under conditions as they existed in 1893. Confidence made the passengers sit tight when the squall struck Wall street, and the bankers,
like good mariners, kept her nose ahead of the gale. Well, yes, some water in the hold was pumped out,
and some ballast thrown overboard.
Maybe some of her crew have been a bit mutinous under discipline and have threatened to scuttle the ship;
but they will be hanging from the yard arm when Captain Roosevelt and Executive Officer Coogan get through with them. Fortunately it was, too, that the resourceful captain found a few yards of spare canvas, marked "Panama," in a locker, and with this spread to the breeze, he should not take Prosperity long to make up the lost time, and the passengers will have an unusually good reason for observing Thanksgiving this month.Professor Deal is a better judge of music than of human nature.But, say, now didn't you have a lot of fun at the horse show? And didn't that and the races bring a lot of people to the city? And didn't they enjoy themselves? And didn't they go home, praising Paducah as the place where something is doing? And when it was over didn't we congratulate those who labored to make the week a success? It is costing them just as much as anybody else, besides the time they spent, and while we don't know of anybody, who is grumbling at the bill, still if anybody is so inclined, let him pause and consider.

DEMOCRACY'S PLIGHT.

Kentucky Democracy is as unfortunate in her triumph as in her defeat. Had the machine not Gerrymandered the state and had the Republicans controlled the legislature,
the Democrats would have been free from responsibility as a party, and the anti-Beckham agitation would have been avoided. Now the Democrats have the legislature and must be responsible for all the laws enacted in the coming session. Not but the stigma of the de-machine rests on Beck-ham. He is made the scapegoat of the party, and is the target of every Democrat, who got beat. His elevation to the senatorship will but aggravate the animosity, and when the breach in the party. Yet, it would be an act of perfidy for a Democrat to vote against him, since he was elected to the legislature, bound by the verdict of the state primary to vote for Beckham for United States senator. Sometimes it is better to lose all than part.

SOVEREIGN CITIZENS.

Did we always qualify the word citizen with sovereign, perhaps, we would talk less about personal liberty and rights and more about duty and obligation; for a sovereign has no liberty, only certain prerogatives, which are necessary for the proper discharge of the responsibilities resting upon him.
Upon every citizen of this country endowed with the right to vote and participate in the government is imposed the responsibilities and obligations of a sovereign. Every act, of his, whether in his private business or in relation to the society or in the performance of public duties, finds its reflex in the government in so far as that citizen's authority and influence go. No citizen has a single right or liberty that is not bound up and hedged round by his obligations as a sovereign. It is the price he pays for popular government. No one can shake off this responsibility.
If he disregards it, he is simply an unfaithful sovereign, and to the extent that he disregards his obligations, the country suffers; for the government will be just as good as the average of her citizenship. Freedom? There is no freedom from eternal vigilance. Either we must watch over ourselves, or some one must watch over us. It will be ourselves, or a monarch or a political boss.CO-OPERATION OF STATE AND NATION.Not the throttling of local self-government by the federal authority, but co-operation between state and national government is sought by the administration. President Roosevelt has called for a conference of the governors of the states and territories
at the white house in May to consider ways and means of conserving the natural resources of the country.
This nation is not made up of a confederacy of isolated states, but is one indivisible whole. Wherein the whole mass is interested alike, the national government should regulate, and wherein only limited localities are interested and the rest of the country not affected, the state should regulate. That is good sense. And in all cases the states and the national government should co-operate for the common good.For years our internal policy has been concerned alone with development, extension of transportation, facilities and the settling of waste lands. To facilitate and encourage the building of railroads and the development of our resources we have been extravagant in gifts of land and extension of privileges, because our resources seemed unbounded and our population limited. Now, conditions are reversed. We find our mineral and timber supplies being exhausted;
our fertile districts becoming crowded and the interests, which profited
by the generosity of the government, grown rich and greedy and selfish.The nation is more concerned with developing the rivers, saving the forests and the grazing lands and making fertile the arid places, than with the far eastern question; but whenever the national government makes a move in the direction of internal economy, it is met with vast interests, that control the press in some instances and the legislatures, and they cry that the nation is transgressing state rights, and the people become alarmed over their cherished,
sacred rights of self-government,
which they have neglected so long that other parts of the country have been affected by the spoils of these legislature controlling interests. Much good should come of that conference next May.

A Hatless Man.

Bareheaded and without an overcoat, Fred Mead, of New York and Yonkers, sailed on the Kronprinz Wilhelm yesterday. The steward seeing possibilities of a reward ran to him to offer to find his headgear. The hatless one ran his fingers through a thick mass of hair, thanked the steward and walked the deck without concern. Several friends went to the ship to wish him good voyage.Fifteen years ago Mr. Mead threw away his hat and has never worn one since. He says he is a great deal healthier and happier because of this,
and he looks it. The hatless one has

BLINDFOLDED

A Mystery Story
of San Francisco

BY

EARLE ASHLEY WALCOTT

(Copyright 1906, the Dodd-Merrill Co.)

"By Jove, Dicky!" I exclaimed, catching my breath. "It slipped my mind, clear. I haven't got at our ahem—banker, either."I saw now what that mysterious money was for—or a part of it, at all events. What I did not see was how I was to get it, and how to pay it to my men."That's rough," said Dicky sympathetically. "I'm dead broke."
It would appear then that Dicky looked to me for pay, whether or not he felt bound to me in service."There's one thing I'd like explained before a settlement," said I grimly, as I straightened out the carpet; "and that is the little performance for my benefit the other night."Dicky cocked his head on one side, and gave me an uneasy glance."Explanation?" he said in affected surprise."Yes," said I sternly. "It looked like a plant. I was within one of getting a knife in me.""What became of you?" inquired Dicky. "We looked around for you for an hour, and were afraid you had been carried off.""That's all right, Dicky," I said. "I know how I got out. What I want to know is how I got in—taken in.""I don't know," said Dicky anxiously.
"I was regularly fooled, myself. I thought they were fishermen, all right enough, and I never thought that Terrill had the nerve to come in there. I was fooled by his disguise, and he gave the word, and I thought sure that Richmond had sent him." Dicky had dropped all banter and was speaking with the tone of sincerity."Well, it's all right now, but I don't want any more slips of that sort.
Who was hurt?""Trent got a bad cut in the side.
One of the Terrill gang was shot. I heard it was only through the arm or leg, I forgot which."I was consumed with the desire to ask what had become of Borton's, but I suspected that I was supposed toknow, and prudently kept the question to myself."Well, come along," said I. "The room will do well enough now. Oh, here's a ten, and I'll let you know as soon as I get the rest. Where can I find you?""At the old place," said Dicky;
"three twenty-six."

"Clay?" I asked in desperation.

Dicky gave me a wondering look as though he suspected my mind was going."No—Geary. What's the matter with you?""Oh, to be sure. Geary street, of course. Well, let me know if anything turns up. Keep a close watch on things."Dicky looked at me in some apparent perplexity as I walked up the stairto my Clay street office, but gave only some laughing answer as he turned back.But I was in far from a laughing humor myself. The problem of paying the men raised fresh prospects of trouble, and I reflected grimly that if the money was not found I might be in more danger from my unpaid mercenaries than from the enemy.Ten o'clock passed, and eleven,
with no sign from Doddridge Knapp,
and I wondered if the news I had carried him of the activities of Terrill and of Becker had disarranged his plans.I tried the door into Room 16. It was locked, and no sound came to my ears from behind it."I should really like to know," I thought to myself, "whether Mr. Dodd-ridge Knapp has left any papers in his desk that might bear on the Wilton mystery."I tried my keys, but none of them fitted the lock. I gave up the attempt —indeed, my mind shrank from the idea of going through my employer's papers—but the desire of getting a key that would open the door was planted in my brain.Twelve o'clock came. No Doddridge Knapp had appeared, and I sauntered down to the Exchange to pick up any items of news. It behooved me to be looking out for Doddridge Knapp's movements. If he had got another agent to carry out his schemes, I should have to prepare my lines for attack from another direction.Wallbridge was just coming rapidly out of the Exchange."No," said the little man, mopping
the perspiration from his shining head,
"quiet as lambs to-day. Their own mothers wouldn't have known the Board from a Sunday school."

I inquired about Omega.

"Flat as a pancake," said the little man. "Nothing doing.""What! Is it down?" I exclaimed with some astonishment."Lord bless you, no!" said Wall-bridge, surprised in his turn. "Strong and steady at eighty, but we didn't sell a hundred shares to-day. Well, I'm in a rush. Good-by, if you don't want to buy or sell." And he hurried off without waiting for a reply.So I was now assured that Dodd-ridge Knapp had not displaced me in the Omega deal. It was a recess to prepare another surprise for the Street, and I had time to attend to a neglected duty.The undertaker's shop that held the morgue looked hardly less gloomy in the afternoon sun than in the light of breaking day in which I had left it when I parted from Detective Coogan.
The office was decorated mournfully to accord with the grief of friends who ordered the coffins, or the feelings of the surviving relatives on settling the bills."I am Henry Wilton," I explained to the man in charge. "There was a body left here by Detective Coogan to my order, I believe.""Oh, yes," he said. "What do you want done with it?"Osteopathy's Recommendations.
More and more each day Osteo-pathy is coming into its own, as its merits become better known, and nowhere is this better evidenced than here in Paducah.In business you are told that the article that has merit repeats,—that is, is demanded over and over again.
Osteopathy certainly contains this element of success,—it repeats over and over again. The people who have tried it appreciate it and resort to it when they again need it, and, what is as encouraging, have no hesitancy in recommending it to their friends.I number among my present and former patrons some of the best people of Paducah, and can refer you at any time to any of them as to the virtues of my treatment.If you are suffering of nervousness in any of its forms, rheumatism, neuralgia, chronic headaches, liver, stomach or bowel troubles, tumbago, general debility or any of the kindred ailments, let me confer with you and tell you frankly just what I can do for you.DR. G. B. PROARGE,

NOTICE

I explained that I wished to arrange to have it deposited in a vault for a time, as I might carry it east."That's easy done," he said; and he explained the details. "Would you like to see the body?" he concluded. "We embalmed it on the strength of Coog-an's order."I shrank from another look at the battered form. The awfulness of the tragedy came upon me with hardly less force than in the moment when I had first faced the mangled and bleeding body on the slab in the dead-room.The undertaker was talking, but I knew not what he said. I was shaking with the horror and grief of the situation, and in that moment I renewed my vow to have blood for blood and life for life, if law and justice were to be had."We'll take it out any time," said
the undertaker, with a decorous reflection of my grief upon his face.
"Would you like to accompany the remains?"

I decided that I would.

"Well, there's nothing doing now.
We can start as soon as we have sealed the casket.""As soon as you can. There's nothing to wait for."The ride to the cemetery took me through a part of San Francisco that I had not yet seen. But I paid little attention to the streets through which we passed. My mind was on the friend whose name I had taken, whose work I was to do. I was back with him in our boyhood days, and lived again for the fleeting minutes the life we had lived in common; and the resolve grew stronger on me that his fate
should be avenged.Arriving at the cemetery it was soon over. The body of Henry Wilton was committed to the vault with the single mourner looking on, and we drove rapidly back in the falling light.I had given my address at the unde-taker's shop, and the hack stopped in front of my house of mystery before I knew where we were. Darkness had come upon the place, and the street-lamps were alight and the gas was blazing in the store-windows along the thoroughfares. As I stepped out of the carriage and gazed about me, I recognized the gloomy doorway and its neighborhood that had greeted me on my first night in San Francisco.As I was paying the fare a stout

"Ah, Mr. Wilton, it's you again."

I turned in surprise. It was the policeman I had met on my first night in San Francisco."Oh, Corson, how are you?" I said heartily, recognizing him at last. I felt a sense of relief in the sight of
him. The place was not one to quiet my nerves after the errand from which I had just come."All's well, sor, but I've a bit of paper for ye." And after some hunting he brought it forth. "I was asked to hand this to ye."I took it in wonder. Was there something more from Detective Coogan? I tore open the envelope and read on its inclosure:"Kum tonite to the house. Shure if yore life is wurth savin."

"Muther Borton."

PLENTY OF WORK

L. C. SHOP MEN HAVE GOTTEN
OVER EARLY SCARE.Enough Work in Shops and Yards to Keep Them Employed for Long Time.From all indications the scare of a further reduction in the working forces at the railroad shops has blown over and the different departments are working the regular men-
full time with prospects for a continuance of the present state of affairs until spring.In the car repairing department,
where the most men are employed,
there is an abundance of work, and to make a reduction would mean to let work accumulate, and it is notthe policy of the railroad officials to let anything go undone that should be attended to at once. The sheds over the repair tracks are being hurried to completion, the sheeting for the roof already being placed over the second half of the sheds and the work of putting on the roofing will soon be begun. When completed
there will be no loss of time on account of bad weather as heretofore in the winter time, and this means a great deal to the employees.In the locomotive department there is also plenty of work and a number of large engines are in waiting on the outside tracks to be rolled into the department and overhauled. From this department the machinists get a large amount of work, and when work is good in the locomotive department, it is necessarily good with the machinists.Two of the men, who were laid off ten days ago, were put back to work in the round house this morning.

Took His Decoy.

The waiter at a recent banquet
held in the north was looking so melancholy that the last of the guests
one to whom the waiter had been very attentive, could not help inquiring the reason for his sighs. "What is the matter, my man?" he asked, sympathetically. "Hav'n't you had enough tips tonight?""Tips," replied the attendant.
"Why, not one of them, including yourself, has given me a tip, and what's more, someone has taken the shilling I put on the tray myself as a decoy."

Not a Negative!

Confusing Ballots.

It is estimated that 32,000 ballots were thrown out in Tuesday's election in Maryland. That is one in every six or seven. A ballot law public policy. If citizens are legally

was not changed by the rapid cross-examination of Mr. Wheeler.

Will Children.
WILL CHILDERS testified that he saw White and Gouley approach Hawley when he left the train and hurry him off toward the lumber yard. He followed at a distance and heard blows fall, seemingly from a buggy whip.

Wayne Thomas.
Wayne Thomas testified that he saw two men take Hawley away from the train. He saw Meadows whip Hawley four times, each whipping being more severe than the one preceding. He heard H. T. Smith use many epithets and accuse Hawley of lying when he would reply to question asked him. He said that Hawley denied any intimacy with Meadows' wife. After the whipping Hawley was carried to H. T. Smith's office and afterwards brought down and a carriage was summoned and Hawley placed in it. "Jim White drove the carriage away while Dick Thomas sat beside Hawley in the carriage. Mr. Meadows paid the livery man $10 for the hack.

Henry Oliver said that he saw a crowd take Hawley from the train. He heard some one come back and say to Meadows that they were ready for him. He followed and saw the whipping. He said that he heard Hawley admit that he had corresponded with Mrs. Meadows and said that they had been sweethearts and he had counseled her to get a divorce, so they could live together. He said Hawley said he deserved what he got if he had done what Meadows thought he had done.

The Attorneys.
Representing the plaintiff are M. T. Sheboume, Bardwell, R. L. Smith, Clinton, Robbins & Thomas, Mayfield. The attorneys for the defendant (Mr. Meadows) are, H. T. Smith, Ed Thomas, Fulton; Wheeler, Hughes and Berry, Paducah, and Hon. Ollie M. James, of Marion.

The following Fulton citizens are here as witnesses: Tom Franklin, Dave Mosely, James White, George Gouley, Smoot Morris, Mack Roach, Muncy Roach, W. W. Meadows, Paul Meadows, Dick Thomas, H. F. Oliver, Wayne Thomas, Leander Robinson, Thomas Mercer and wife, T. P. Guey and wife, Miss Kittie Cooksey, Ed Thomas and wife, Dr. J. C. McClure, L. W. Burton, Clarence Williams, Dr. A. B. Wayne and Col. J. P. Fall.

Evidence was introduced to show that H. T. Smith, one of the defendants, was a resident of the state of Kentucky and not of Tennessee as claimed by the defendant, H. T. Smith.

The defense closed its direct testimony.

The Defendant.
W. W. Meadows said: He was married to his present wife in 1891. Have one daughter, Mary. Wife and daughter are now in St. Louis. (Here the judge ordered the jury withdrawn that objection of plaintiff's attorney to questions regarding relations with his wife before Hawley entered his home. The court allowed Meadows to answer the question in part.)

Meadows testified that up to January 1, 1906, he had the affections of his wife. The first he noticed between Hawley and his wife that upon his return from a two weeks' trip to Hot Springs he noted a marked change in his wife's demeanor and her conduct with Hawley by visiting his room aroused his suspicions. Mrs. Meadows joined Hawley's congregation and they were constantly together. He found Mrs. Meadows in Hawley's room a number of times. "I finally told Mr. Hawley to vacate his room. He asked me no questions as to why I ordered him from the room. He remained in the room several days."

Meadows identified the writing of several letters as being Mrs. Meadows'. The letters were withheld from the jury at present.

Sensation Promised.

The trial of the case has brought a large crowd of Fulton people here as witnesses in the case, many of them being ladies and members of the most prominent families of Fulton.

When the defense begins its case it is expected that evidence of a sensational nature will be presented. Letters purporting to have been written by Mrs. Meadows and Mr. Hawley. From the statement of counsel it is understood that the letters were unsigned.

It is expected that some of the finest speeches ever heard in Paducah will be heard, the attorneys of both sides being among the most prominent in the state.

The Jury.
J. D. Foley, L. R. Goodaker, N. L. Chrisman, D. F. Fox, W. O. Hayden, R. A. Sexton, C. A. Bright, C. J. Riley, D. C. Dyson, J. B. Swan, G. H. Burton, W. L. McGregor.

NEW YORK'S HORSE SHOW OPENS IN A HEAVY RAIN.

New York, Nov. 19.—The twenty-third annual horse show convened at Madison Square Garden this morning, but not with its usual pomp and splendor. During the early hours it held but little more than the mere pomp of music and the splendor of decorations. There were several reasons for this. In the first place, society, always lazy, did not like the looks of the streets, soaked with the cold, dismal rain. Then there were the rival attractions of grand opera, which had everybody dressing during the late hours of the afternoon. It may have been that the honking ghost of the automobile had something to do with it.

CHIEF MOTY TIGER OF CREEKS WELCOMES THEM.

Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 19.—Moty Tiger, chief of the Creek Indian nation in his native tongue, welcomed delegates of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress, which convened here today. Through an interpreter he pictured the sunset of a once great people, and begged the congress to aid in preserving the Indian lands. He said a polished, educated man with Indian blood in his veins who advocates the removal of restrictions from the lands of his ignorant people, apart from government regulations, is only reaching for gold with his itching palms. "Our posterity will remember him for his avarice and treachery."

May Divorce Thaw's Sister.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—That the pearl of Yarmouth is preparing to enter suit for divorce from his wife, Alice, sister of Harry K. Thaw, is the word brought from London by Ida Veronica Simonton, the "missing link" in the chain of Thaw trial witnesses, who was supposed to know much about the Thaw family. This bears out the story of some weeks ago, when copies of all records on the Yarmouth wedding were hastily made and sent to England at the request of barristers there.

RETIRED BUSINESS MAN FAVORS NEW THEORY

E. H. Lambert, Everett, Mass., Believes Stomach the Seat of Life.

One of the most interesting statements made recently concerning the much discussed Cooper theory, that has spread over the country during the past year, is made by E. H. Lambert, a retired business man, whose home is at 115 Francis street, Everett, Mass.

Mr. Lambert has this to say in connection with Cooper and his medicine: "Some time ago I read an article about this man Cooper, in which he claimed that stomach trouble was directly responsible for most ill health. He went on to say that, although his medicine did nothing but get the stomach in sound condition, it would, in many cases, remove kidney and liver trouble and various other ailments. He argued from this that the stomach was the main cause of sickness, and stated that the success he has had with his medicine was due entirely to this fact.

"I am now fully convinced that this theory is correct, and I believe Cooper has a really remarkable medicine, judging from my own experience.

"I have been a sick man for five years. Three years ago I was told by a physician that I had Bright's disease of the kidneys. I have treated constantly for this trouble since, with out results. After reading the article I have mentioned, I purchased some of this man Cooper's medicine. I have been astounded by what it has done for me. I was relieved to some extent within 24 hours. Today my health is better than for five years, and so far as I can tell, my kidney trouble has disappeared.

"My wife, who had stomach trouble for some time, tried the preparation after noting its action in my case, and her improvement is fully as marked as mine. She now eats heartily three times a day without any distress whatsoever. Her nervousness has also left her. I certainly believe this man's success is fully justified, as he undoubtedly has a wonderful medicine."

We will gladly describe the remarkable record made by the Cooper medicines to all who wish to know of them.—W. B. McPherson.

BONDS OF PANAMA WILL BE OFFERED

Fifty Millions to be Sent to

President and Cortelyou See Prosperity of Country Unequalled at Present Time.

HOW THEY ARE TO BE SOLD.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—President Roosevelt took bold measures to end the financial stringency from which the country is suffering.

He directed Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou to issue $50,000,000 worth of Panama canal bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 2 per cent per annum, and $100,000,000 of 3 per cent interest bearing government notes.

Of this immense sum $50,000,000 is to be deposited in the south and west to facilitate the moving of the crops.

It is the confident belief of the administration and of financial men in Washington that the action of the president will break the back of the stringency.

So far as the resources and the demand for the products of the country are concerned, there has never been the slightest doubt that they are as great, if not greater, than they ever have been.

Need of Currency Shown.

But there has not been sufficient currency to meet the situation, in spite of the deposit by the government in national banks of more than $200,000,000 and of the importation of $55,000,000 in gold.

From all sections have come calls for currency, and these became so insistent that the president concluded that it was desirable for him to take further action.

No Analogy With '93 Conditions.

There is no analogy at all with the way things were in 1893. On November 30 of that year there was in the treasury but $161,000,000 in gold. On November 14 of this year there was in the treasury $904,000,000 of gold. Ten years ago the circulation per capita was $23.23. It is now $33.23. The steps that are now taken the ability of the government to back them up, and the fact that not a particle of risk is involved therein gives the fullest guarantee of the sound condition of our people and the sound condition of our treasury.

All that our people have to do now is to go ahead with their normal business in a normal fashion, and the whole difficulty disappears; and this end will be achieved at once if each man will act as he normally does act, and as the real conditions of the country's business fully warrant his now acting.

How Bonds Can Be Bought.

The treasury circular inviting proposals for Panama canal bonds reads as follows:

"Treasury Department, Office of the Secretary, Washington, D. C.—The secretary of the treasury offers to the public $50,000,000 of the bonds of the Panama canal loan authorized by section 8 of the act approved June 28, 1902, and supplemented by section 1 of the act of Dec. 21, 1905. Both acts are quoted below.

"The bonds will bear interest at the rate of 2 per cent per annum, will be dated Aug. 1, 1906, and the interest will be paid quarterly on the first days of November, February, May and August.

"They will be issued in denominations of $20, $100 and $1,000 of coupon bonds, and of $20, $100, $1,000 and $10,000 of registered bonds. They will be redeemable in United States gold coin at the pleasure of the United States, after ten years from the date of their issue, and will be payable thirty years from such date.

"They will be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States.

Small Bids Get Priority.

"In considering bids, the bidders offering the highest prices will receive the first allotment. Of two or more bidders offering the same price, those asking for the smaller amounts of bonds will receive priority in allotment. The department reserves the right to permit bidders offering the highest prices to increase the amount of their purchases.

"For the sake of uniformity the bonds will be dated Aug. 1, 1906, which is the date of the outstanding Panama canal bonds, but interest on the bonds of this issue will begin Nov. 1, 1907, and bidders will be required to pay accrued interest on their bonds from that date to the date of payment.

"The department also reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if deemed to be to the interest of the United States so to do. The bonds will be ready for delivery upon receipt of payment thereof.

"Prospective bidders desiring information not contained in this circular may address the secretary of the treasury, division of loans and currency, Washington, D. C., the assistant treasurers at Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans or San Francisco.

SIMPLE REMEDY KILLS BACILLI IN THE SKIN.

Oil of Wintergreen Properly Combined Makes Burning, Itching Eczematous Skin Pure and Healthy.

The simplest remedy for eczema, itch and other skin diseases known to the medical profession has for its basic ingredient that simple liquid, oil of wintergreen. This remedy kills the bacilli which causes burning, itching skin almost instantly.

The medical value of the oil of wintergreen has been known for many years to physicians, but it remained for a Chicago specialist, Dr. Decatur D. Dennis, to combine this oil with other soothing remedies for the treatment of eczema, psoriasis, barber's itch, ring worm and other kindred diseases of the skin. One application of this clean, pure liquid known as D. D. D. Prescription at once stops the awful itch. The relief is instantaneous.

Here is what John A. White, of 806 Mills street, Creston, Ia., says of D. D. D. Prescription in a letter written June 15, 1907:

"I have just been cured by D. D. D. Prescription of the worst case of eczema a man could have. I used only nine bottles and it did the work after I had spent over $500 with the best doctors in the country and got no relief. Let any person suffering with skin diseases write me personally."

Such cases as these seem innumerable. We can absolutely vouch for D. D. D. We know it instantly takes away the itch and we know it cures. All the cures furthermore seem to be permanent and at any rate just as soon as you apply a drop of the liquid the itch is gone. If you have any kind of skin rash or other skin trouble call at our store and we shall be glad to hand you free of charge one of the D. D. D. pamphlets on skin disease. R. W. Walker & Co., Fifth and Broadway.

the secretary of the treasury direct or through the treasurer of the United States and the assistant treasurers located at New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, New Orleans and San Francisco, beginning on Nov. 18 and continuing at the discretion of the secretary of the treasury.

In order that the certificates may be properly distributed throughout the country, $50,000,000 will be allotted by the secretary, in his discretion, upon offers of subscriptions addressed to him, and the remaining $50,000,000 will be allotted through the several assistant treasurers authorized to receive subscriptions at the following points: San Francisco, New Orleans, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and through the treasurer of the United States at Washington.

Adds $90,000,000 to Circulation.

While on its face the two issues by the government will add $150,000,000 to the circulation, as a matter of fact the increase will be much greater. The bonds, for instance, will serve national banks as a basis of bank note circulation. The proceeds from their sale will be deposited in the national banks, and the latter, it is expected, will be able to issue $40,000,000 in bank notes with the bonds as securities. In other words, something like $90,000,000 will be obtained from this source.

The interest bearing notes will be issued in denominations of $50. These notes may circulate, but it is hardly likely they will do so because, in consequence of their interest bearing character, they will command a premium.

It is believed they will be purchased by persons who have been transferring their money from banks to safe deposit boxes or old stockings. It is highly important that this hoarding shall cease, and if the persons so engaged shall buy notes, the purpose of the president will be achieved.

It is estimated that something like $200,000,000 will be added to the circulating medium of the country as a result of the president's action.

They will be available to national banks as security for circulating notes upon the same terms as the 2 per cent consols of 1933—to wit: The semi-annual tax upon circulating notes based upon the said bonds as security will be one-fourth of 1 per centum. They will be receivable, like all other United States bonds, as security for public deposits in national banks.

The law forbids their sale at less than par and provides that all citizens of the United States shall have

SCIENCE

PROVES REVELATION AND VICE VERSA, SAYS FATHER LAM-BERT.

Learned Priest Shows How Astronomy and Geology and Chemistry Corroborate Genesis.

Science—the acquisition and exact knowledge, concerning nature, and its orderly and logical arrangement in the mind.

Revelation—God speaking to His children direct, and showing them the result of His handiwork.

Science and revelation prove each other, and never do true revelation and exact science contradict one another.

This was the substance of the lecture on "Science and Revelation" delivered by the Rev. A. A. Lambert, at St. Francis de Sales church last night. The vast auditorium was crowded with an interested audience and the address was listened to with rapt attention.

Father Lambert is an experimenting scientist. He said he has demonstrated with all the modern inventions and apparatus and he has found it of great assistance in his study of theology, for always his science has but corroborated the great truths of Holy Writ.

He deplored the smattering of knowledge gained from books, which after all is but the learning of the names employed in science and not the study of science itself. He said the real study of science requires a long and diligent work to learn the relations of things, and to place them in orderly fashion in the shelves of the brain, where they may be found whenever the particular knowledge is called for.

He illustrated his points with the study of geology and the formation of the earth, and then with astronomy and the formation of the worlds out of "formless and void" chaos, and proved that Genesis is a remarkable category of the processes of creation, and he said Moses must have been thousands of years in advance of the knowledge of his day or inspired to have written down such exact data.

Father Lambert will have none of the Darwinian theory of the ascent of man, and he calls the creation of man a special act of God.

BLOOD POISON

HUMILIATING-VILE-DESTRUCTIVE

The first symptom of Contagious Blood Poison is usually a little sore or ulcer, which is quickly followed by a red rash on the skin, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, ulcerated mouth and throat, and often copper colored spots on different parts of the body. As the blood becomes more fully contaminated with the poison, pustular eruptions and sores break out on the flesh, and in extreme cases the nerves and bones are attacked and the finger nails drop off. Then the sufferers find themselves diseased from head to foot with this humiliating, vile and destructive poison. No other disease is so highly contagious; many an innocent person has been inoculated by handling the clothing or using the toilet articles of an infected person. There is but one certain, reliable cure for Contagious Blood Poison, and that is S. S. S. It attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the circulation, and neutralizing and forcing out every particle of the poison. It makes the blood pure and rich, tones up the system, and completely and permanently cures this disease. S. S. S. has cured thousands of cases of Contagious Blood Poison. If you are suffering with this debasing and destructive disease begin the use of S. S. S. and get the poison out of your blood before it permanently wrecks your health. We have a home treatment book on the disease which we will send free to all who wish it, and in addition our physicians will give without charge any medical advice needed. SEPARATE SEATS IN STREET CARS

Improvement of Meyers Street Discussed But No Action Taken By Lower Board.

COUNCIL MEETING LAST NIGHT

A resolution presented by Councilman Williamson, ordering the ordinance committee to bring in an ordinance requiring the street car company to provide separate seats for white and colored people and the discussion of the improvement of Meyers street from the bridge to Farley Place were the most important measures before the board of councilmen last night. The motion of Councilman Williamson was carried by a vote of 8 to 3, while Little was done in regard to the Meyers street proposition other than discuss it. The discussion was brought about by Councilman Foreman, who reported that a plank sidewalk along Meyers street was in bad repair and suggested that the city repair it. It developed that the walk was built by private parties and the city solicitor objected to repairs being made as that would mean the city taking supervision over it and making itself liable for damages, which would probably result from accident.

The board of councilmen met Monday night with all the members present but Councilman Herzog. President Lindsey presided. Minutes of the last regular meeting and one called meeting were read and approved.

A New Depository.

Mayor Yeiser read a communication from Manager Bleecker, of the Paducah Traction company in regard to the improvement of Jefferson street between Fountain avenue and Twentieth streets. The matter was referred to the board of public works. Mayor Yeiser suggested that the council request the city treasurer to select a bank for city depository that will allow interest on daily balances. He called attention to the fact that the city pays a high rate of interest when it borrows money and read letters from mayors of other second-class cities, showing that they not only were paid interest on daily balances but borrowed money for less than two per cent.

The question of renting the new cemetery property was referred to the cemetery committee.

How to Cure Liver Trouble

There are usually several ways to do a given thing, but it is the aim with all of us to find the best and shortest way. It is just so in the cure of disease. People suffering from liver trouble imagine that all they have to do is take some thing that will purify the blood. There is more than that in the cure of so serious a disorder as liver trouble.

When that drowsy, sluggish feeling comes on you go to a drug store and ask for a 50 cent or $1 bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take a dose or two and wait results. It will not only clean out the bowels and stimulate the liver, but it will get the blood to circulate so that you feel active again, and arouse the functions of the stomach so that your appetite returns and you feel like your old self again. A simple laxative or purgative could not do that. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is not only a wonderful laxative but it has tonic properties, so that, unlike so many other things, instead of leaving you weak and drawn it builds you up and strengthens you.

It does not gripe—it acts smoothly, oiling the intestines so that the passage is smooth and comfortable. It is gentle but effective, pleasant to the taste and pure in quality. It is an excellent, economical Home Cure, and its results are permanent. It is absolutely guaranteed to do what is claimed for it.

Use it for occasional or chronic constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, sour stomach, bloated stomach, flatulency, diarrhea, and the dozen and one other ills of the stomach, liver and bowels that the greatest of household remedies and no family should be without it because in a family someone at any moment may need such a laxative and then you will appreciate having Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by enclosing the coupon. This offer is to prove the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlemen, you must take this for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is as good as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C. PEPSIN SYRUP CO. 107 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

was concurred in. The city engineer reported that many people on Meyers street in Mechanicsburg had built houses on the street. The city solicitor gave his opinion that the general council could take no action as it would be a matter for the courts to settle.

A petition from property owners on Clark street, between Nineteenth and Twenty-first streets, agreeing to dedicate property for a street was referred to the city solicitor with power to act.

The recommendation of the joint street committee that the stones on the levee be removed and the drive way laid in gravel was referred to the board of public works.

The recommendation of the street committee that the board of public works repair the sidewalk from the Mechanicsburg bridge to Farley Place was rejected.

The city clerk was instructed to make C. E. Spinner and Mrs. Dan Galvin deeds to lots in Oak Grove cemetery.

Charles R. Elliott was given permission to deed a cemetery lot to Thomas Elliott.

The motion of Councilman Foreman that the ordinance committee be ordered to bring in an ordinance improving Meyers street from the bridge to Farley Place, by grading and graveling was lost by a vote of 8 to 3.

A communication from City Attorney Harrison, appointing the News-Democrat the official paper for the year beginning April 3, 1907, to April 3, 1908, was received and filed, after which the board adjourned.

FEDERAL JUDGE TAKES OFF LID

Issues Injunction to Prevent Closing Sunday Theaters in Texas.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 19.—Sheriffs and county attorneys have been making war on Sunday theaters in Texas for more than a year. Prosecutions have been particularly severe in Dallas. B. S. Muckenfuss, formerly of St. Louis, but for two years manager of the Majestic in this city, had to close Nov. 10 after a long fight. He opened Sunday for a matinee and when state officers attempted to make arrests, United States deputy marshals prevented them, exhibiting authority from United States District Judge Meek, who had issued a restraining order against the state of Texas, on a constitutional question raised by Mr. Muckenfuss. The Majestic was crowded. Judge Meek has cited the state to appear before him next Saturday and show cause why the temporary injunction shall not be made permanent.

Bat Sawed Off Her Hair.

San Rafael is suffering from an invasion of bats, and despite the strenuous efforts of the citizens the winged pests have gained a strong foothold in various parts of the town. Because of their activity Miss Lillian Steadman, a pretty young housemaid, employed at the Hotel Rafael, is mourning the loss of her golden tresses and incidentally suffering from a shock to her nervous system.

Miss Steadman climbed to the attic in the hotel on Saturday evening determined to drive out some of the bats. She was surrounded soon by a drove of the winged rodents and proceeded gamely to give battle to them. One of the bats lodged in the young lady's hair and refused to budge. Miss Steadman, thoroughly frightened, ran screaming from the attic and the bat still clung to her, keeping busy with its saw-like wings till he had succeeded in cutting her beautiful tresses so badly that it was necessary to shear them off, much to the sorrow of the girl and her admirers.—San Francisco Call.

MATRIMONIAL BUREAU GETS TWO YOUNG MEN IN SERIOUS TROUBLE.

Joynes and Brown Indicted By Federal Grand Jury for Using the Mails.

The matrimonial bureau venture of Earl Joynes and Elmore Brown, sons of prominent Paducah families, has taken a more serious turn than friends of both anticipated, the federal grand jury yesterday bringing in an indictment, charging them with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. The young men started the bureau for the purpose of bringing together men and women who had matrimonial ambitions, charging a fee of $1 for their services. They put out a lot of advertising matter and soon replies began to pour in from all over the country, but their ambition was cut short by the appearance of a postal inspector, who after investigation, ordered their mail held up. However, it was believed that the authorities would drop the matter, having stopped the bureau from operating, and the indictment is a surprise to their friends.

Abe, Harry and Lee Livingston were indicted for shipping liquor into local option territory, labeled non-intoxicating. The trial of the cases were continued.

M. H. Gallagher was acquitted on the charge of putting an inferior grade of whisky in a bottled in bond bottle and offering it for sale as genuine.

A similar charge against T. H. Reid was ignored by the grand jury.

GUTHRIE FEARS FOR ITS CROWN

Legislature of Oklahoma May Meet in Some Other City.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 19.—Governor Charles N. Haskell last night issued a call for the legislature of the new state to meet December 2. The place where the session will be held is left open. This gives reason for fear here that the legislature may be called to meet at some other place than Guthrie, if the city does not offer a suitable meeting place at a figure to suit the governor and the legislators. Shawnee has offered quarters for the state officers and a place for the legislature to meet free of charge.

The Oklahoma legislature is composed of 100 representatives and 44 senators. The Republicans have only 17 members of the house and five members of the senate. Governor Haskell does not outline any proposed legislation in the call.

School Coinage.

It is not a generally known fact that the Bluecoat School (Christ's Hospital) once possessed a coinage of its own. At that time the coinage of the realm could not be used at the hospital. Before he could buy anything in the "tuck shop," a new boy had to get one of the beaules, who were the school money changers, to change his shillings and pence into "house money," as it were called. This was made of copper, the coins being octagonal in shape, with their value stamped on them. These curious coins are now very rare, and numismatists possessing any are fortunate.—Captain.

AT FANCY FARM

THREE HUNDRED CONFIRMED
BY BISHOP MCLOSKEY.

Largest Congregation, With Exception of Two, in the Whole State of Kentucky.

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 19.—The Rt.
Rev. Bishop William George McCloskey, bishop of the Kentucky diocese, held confirmation exercises at the Catholic church in this city yesterday morning at 8 o'clock for eighteen.

Bishop McCloskey arrived in Mayfield yesterday and was the guest of prominent Catholics while here.

Yesterday at Fancy Farm, at St.
Jerome church, three hundred candidates were confirmed.

The ceremony at Fancy Farm took several hours. The bishop was assisted by Father Haegeley, of the St.
Jerome church; Father McNeil, of the church here, and Father Kneue, of Danville.

This is probably the largest number of confirmations ever occurring outside of Louisville and the large number was the result of the time which has elapsed since the bishop was last in this territory, which was five years ago.

After the exercises at Fancy Farm
the bishop returned to Mayfield and from here to Louisville.

The St. Jerome church is one of the largest Catholic churches in the state of Kentucky. There are only three or four in the state which have a larger congregation, one of these being in Daviess county and the other in Louisville. The Mayfield church has been steady in its growth and has increased in size under the leadership of Father McNeil, but it is a smaller church than the one at Fancy Farm.

Perfectly Lovely.

Raiding the Chamois.

Some details now being published
of the doings at the King of Italy's shooting box in Valle Gesse thru some light on the prodigious rate at which the chamois is disappearing from the Alpine haunts. The king has leased the whole region, in which there are six different directions,
in which the chamois may be driven,
and each will afford sport for a separate day. On the first day 100 chamois were killed, and each of the other five days is expected to give as full a bag. Six hundred chamois in six days.

MURDER IN SECOND DEGREE

Verdict for Man Who Confessed to Starting Fire in Yards.

Boulder, Col., Nov. 19.—Murder
in the second degree and the recommendation for a minimum sentence of ten years' imprisonment was the verdict returned today in the case of J. W. Reeve, railroad brakeman, who confessed that he and another railroad man set the fire in the Colorado Southern railway yards here on the night of August 10 last which caused an explosion of a car load of dynamite, killing three men and destroying several hundred dollars worth of property. It was urged on behalf of Reeve, who is a member of a well known New Jersey family, that he was intoxicated at the time that he committed the crime, and did not know that there was any dynamite in the cars. The motive for starting the fire was in sympathy with the Colorado Southern switchmen, who were on strike.

Didn't Mind the Ladder.

A ladder leaned against a store
front in Nassau street, near Spruce, yesterday afternoon. Its foot was so far out that it was easier for one
to go under it than to pass outside it.
Everyone knows it is considered
bad luck to walk under a ladder.
Did many of the crowd hurrying tor h rideobw a emf mfmv
ward the bridge pay deference to
that superstition?
Out of the thirty who passed only seven avoided the supposed hoodoo.
Those seven must have done it out of superstition because it would have been easier for them to go under the ladder as the other twenty-three did.
The man who paused to see had, himself, not passed under it.—New York World.

Six Months.

"Weary's gone to work."
"Who said so?"
"The judge."

Both of a Mind.
"Look here, young man," said the bad boy's father, "I'll expect you to behave better in the future. I don't want your mother to be worrying about you all the time."
"Neither do I pa: I wouldn't care
if she didn't worry a bit."—Philadelphia Press.
